

2019 Italy and Africa Food

A typical company in the Lombardy belt, specialising in qualified welding, has expanded its activities to include industrial, chemical, naval and food plants.

We supply plate heat exchangers for the construction of temperature control and thermostating plants in various areas. Specifically, this is an application related to the production/refining of chocolate, both in the conching and tempering stages.