

2019

Lecco, Italy

Chemistry and Petrochemistry

A company active in the production of pharmaceuticals uses our supplied plate heat exchangers in the thermostating of production processes. The application usually involves a set of three exchangers, regulating three temperature levels, with a single-fluid circuit, using different fluids/utilities, typically steam, tower water, ice water.